

2007 Lodi Public Library TeenScape Teen Art Contest

Open your mind to the creative possibilities inside.

Contest Rules:

- Artwork must be original. Use of copyrighted material is not permitted. Three-dimensional works will be accepted if they can be mounted securely on the wall.
- May be any form, such as drawing, painting, 3D, mixed media, photography and computer generated. Size of entry no larger than 24" by 30" including matting.
- No fragile or flammable materials
- Artwork should be themed around books, reading, information, the internet, and the library.

Artist Information:

• Full name, address, birthdate, name of school with address and grade must be clearly printed on the application form which, when completed, should be securely fixed to the back of the artwork. The parent/guardian signature is required on the attached application form.

- An additional separate list that includes school name and phone number, teacher's name, student names, ages and grades must accompany each classroom's submittal.

Contest Entries will be judged in two categories:

- (1) Grades 7 - 9
- (2) Grades 10 - 12

Money prizes of $100, $75, and $50 will be given for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place respectively.

All artwork must be submitted by January 31, 2007. (subject to change)

For more information contact Behjat Kerdegari at (209)-333-5503 or at bkgari@lodilibrary.org

*Contest and Prizes are sponsored by the Friends of Lodi Public Library